8.45am	Registration	Hugh Grant explores Bonsai from the perspective of natural sculptural form and natural ecological references. Having studied with numerous mentors over 14 years, Hugh undertook an internship with Ryan Neil in 2016 to thoroughly explore the technical & theoretical applications of Bonsai from a western perspective. Hugh has a Bachelor of Fine arts majoring in Sculptural studies and photography. Hugh business "Tree Makers" is a creative studio, nursery and school developing theories and practices for Australian trees. Recognised as one of Australia's leading bonsai artists, Hugh frequently visits clubs and organisations all around Australia to share his knowledge and skill. Hugh's skills are excellent with most species and genres of trees, of course favouring Australian native flora.
